

Guide to sharing IFACCA's Public Survey on Working Conditions in the Creative and Cultural Sectors

Links and templates

Thank you for assisting in the distribution of IFACCA's public survey on working conditions in the creative and cultural sectors. You can find out more about the survey here. We have provided links to share IFACCA's existing social media posts as well as templates to adapt for your own channels at your discretion. If you have questions, contact info@ifacca.org.

Option 1: Share IFACCA's social media posts

- Tweet: <https://twitter.com/ifacca/status/1507179374273241092>
- Facebook post: <https://www.facebook.com/IFACCA/posts/7219540731452793>
- LinkedIn post: https://www.linkedin.com/posts/ifacca---international-federation-of-arts-councils-and-culture-agencies\_research-arts-artists-activity-6914350363017977856-vAHR?utm\_source=linkedin\_share&utm\_medium=member\_desktop\_web

Option 2: Write your own (templates and images provided)

Tweet template

[Survey] @ifacca, the global network of arts councils & culture agencies, is doing a survey working conditions in the creative & cultural industries. Please share your experiences as an artist or cultural worker to contribute to this important research: <https://ifacca.org/news/2022/03/17/public-survey-working-conditions-creative-and-cult/>

Download image

Facebook and LinkedIn template

Our friends at @IFACCA are preparing a public report on the working conditions of artists and independent cultural workers. They're calling on the international community – and specifically artists and independent (freelance) cultural workers – to share their experiences in a survey. Find out more and participate: <https://ifacca.org/news/2022/03/17/public-survey-working-conditions-creative-and-cult/>

Download image

Newsletter or web article template

Our friends at IFACCA, the global network of arts councils and culture agencies, are preparing a public report on the working conditions of artists and independent cultural workers. They're calling on the international community – and specifically artists and independent (freelance) cultural workers – to share their experiences in a survey.

Please note:

- the survey will take approximately 12 minutes to complete
- you may choose to remain anonymous or provide your contact details
- the survey will close on Friday, 8 April 2022.

On behalf of IFACCA, thank you for participating. If you have any questions, please contact info@ifacca.org.

Access the survey <https://ifacca.org/news/2022/03/17/public-survey-working-conditions-creative-and-cult/>

Download image